Job Title: Management Trainees - Food & Beverage (F&B) Industry

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Suntec F&B Holdings Pte Ltd is an established F&B Group (Singapore registered) which operates a few F&B brands. The company is at the stage of expanding its outlets and developing new food concepts.

Your Inspirations

The Trainee Programme is a new initiative offering the right candidates opportunities to develop their professional and personal aspirations in the F&B industry.

The Programme will include but not limited to:

- A series of function-focused rotations in different departments (Accounting, Marketing, Retail) to promote understanding of the Company and its businesses
- An extensive on-the-job training, coaching and project assignments
- Acquiring knowledge of the F&B, Retail & Urban farming businesses (Farm to Table) - its customers & partners, processes & network
- Building professional competencies and personal mastery

You will be immersed into the operations to gain a first-hand understanding of the businesses. This will include hands on, in-field training (deep dives) in the marketing, supply chain, finance/accounting, marketing and retail operations. You will develop an understanding of the businesses by shadowing people who perform the job, at all levels.

Upon successful completion of the Programme, candidates will take on an entry-level position in a function matching to his/her aspirations, interest, aptitude & acumen.
