Embassy of the Republic of Korea to the Republic of Singapore

The Embassy of the Republic of Singapore is an overseas mission of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) of the Republic of Korea. The mission of the Embassy is to advance the interests of the Republic of Korea, serve to protect Korean citizens in Singapore and to promote bilateral political, economic and cultural links between Korea and the Republic of Singapore.

Position: Political Researcher

The Political Section of the Embassy of the Republic of Korea in Singapore is currently accepting applications for the position of "Researcher." This is a full-time position and selected applicant will be expected to begin his/her work immediately.

Job Description

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Writing analysis papers on political and economic issues
- Data research including the monitoring of press and government announcements, specifically on political and economic topics
- Supporting diplomatic activities of Korean delegations and Embassy officials
- Writing/editing of letters, speeches, and op-eds in English

*Average Monthly salary: S$4,100

Qualifications

- Applicants must be legally qualified to work in Singapore
- Master’s degree in international relations/politics/economics, English language or any related field
  OR Five years of work experience in the related fields after completing Bachelor’s degree
  OR a person with a considerable reason to be recognized as an expert in his/her field of work
- Proficiency in Chinese language preferred
- Fluency in English is required (speaking/writing)
- Ability to accomplish a wide range of administrative tasks

How to Apply

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and a resume both written in English to korembsg@mofa.go.kr by 19 July 2019. Please note that only selected applicants will be contacted for an interview and a written test. No phone calls please.