Wilhelmsen Ships Service (S) Pte Ltd is a global maritime industry group founded in 1861. We have the biggest maritime network in the world, with a presence in over 2,200 locations globally. We serve over half of the worldwide merchant fleet with products and services, and supply crew and technical management for some of the most complex vessels in the world. We also develop new and daring solutions, shaping the maritime industry for the future.

Our investments seek to explore and develop new opportunities within the energy-, offshore- and maritime industry.

With thousands of colleagues in more than 70 countries, we take competence, sustainability, innovation and unparalleled customer experiences one step further.

Cylinder Business Controller

Responsibilities:

- Perform analysis and recommend improvement actions on business operations and financial performance.
- Support Global Assets Director in business decision processes with focus on risk assessment and financial analysis and exposures.
- Support cylinder asset management team with business cases and analysis of key drivers on business/operations with recommendation of improvements.
- Support cylinder asset operation and commercial team to track and measure the team’s key performance indicators (KPIs).
- Identify and understand the reason and driver behind the KPIs and support the follow-up actions of the KPIs.
- Support the development of the team’s understanding of the cylinders asset core business drivers and their relative sensitivity to the business performance.
- Align the team’s KPI to the core business drivers to improve business performance.
- Responsible for developing, reviewing, and managing the cylinders assets data strategy with the objective to utilize data for insights (e.g. identify issues, establish patterns and trends, support decision making, and create insightful reports).
- Understand the business requirement from cylinder asset team to identify the data and information required.
- Work with IT team in getting the data required from sources to data lake or data warehouse.
- Design data model for cylinder asset business to ensure that the data used for cylinder asset team is aligned and consistent.
- Participate and support business projects, such as Cylinders Asset System project, Project One and etc.
Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree or Master Business Administration/Finance & Accounting or similar discipline.
- Minimum 3 or more years of relevant working experiences in related or similar role.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Systematic, analytical and meticulous.
- Sound business understanding.
- Team player

To apply, please send your resume to wss.singapore.personnel@wilhelmsen.com.

Apply by 15 June 2020.