NTU Chinese Medicine Alumni Association & NUS Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine
Speakers' Series:

CULTIVATING LIFE - ANCIENT WISDOM, MODERN METHODS

A literature-based sharing on the traditional methods to ensure quality of life by co-author of "Pursuing the Elixir of Life: Chinese Medicine for Health", and a multi-dimensional discussion on the relevance of current day health interventions and applications from the Western, Chinese Medicine and Pharmaceutical perspective.

Date: 29 September 2018 (Saturday)
Time: 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm
Venue: NTU @ One North, LT 301
11, Slim Barracks Rise
(off North Buona Vista Road)
Singapore 138664

TO REGISTER:
https://tinyurl.com/med-tcm-talk1

SPEAKERS

Chinese Medicine on Health Cultivation and Disease Prevention

Physician Wee Yan Ling Karen
Co-author of Book "Pursuing the Elixir of Life: Chinese Medicine for Health"
NTU CMAA Founding President

Western Medical Perspective: Cultivating Life

A/P Lau Tung Ching
Vice-Dean (Education),
NUS Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine

Health Empowerment: Active and Lifelong

A/P Koh Hwee Ling
National University of Singapore
Department of Pharmacy, Faculty of Science

*Topics of the speeches are only indicative and subjected to changes.

Jointly Organised by: